Helpful Hints for the Bride

- ♥ Eight to ten months before the wedding is not too soon to be thinking about how your skin will look on your wedding day. Make an appointment to learn how to have the loveliest skin for your special day and the busy months before the wedding.
- ♥ Many brides spend a hundred dollars or more on a makeover the day of the wedding. Instead, schedule your free Bridal Beauty Consultation and Makeover and learn how to do your own beautiful makeover. Invest your money into the products so that you can put on a beautiful face at all your pre-wedding events, as well as your wedding day.
- ♥ For added color, use bronzing beads or tanning lotion. Don't risk severe coloring changes, freckling or sunburn the week of your wedding!
- ♥ Plan to work with your Bridal Beauty Consultant several times to practice different looks, colors, and techniques until you find the perfect makeup for your wedding.
- ♥ Schedule an appointment with your entire bridal party. The makeup can be customized to each individual bridesmaid, with colors that flatter each, but the intensity of the looks should match. The bridesmaid's makeup should never be more intense than the bride's.
- ♥ The key to wearing makeup for your wedding day is to apply it so the color lasts throughout the day and/or evening. It's not a matter of wearing heavier makeup. It's more about choosing the right shades and applying color correctly so it will last and look great under several kinds of lighting, from daylight to twilight to photography lights.
- ♥ Before your bridal portrait, practice the special photographic makeup techniques with your consultant.
- ♥ Tears of joy should not result in streaking mascara. Waterproof mascara is a must!
